Parent/Guardian Concern Protocol

Policy Statement

The Strait Regional School Board recognizes and supports the right of parents/guardians to advocate on behalf of their children within the public school system. The Strait Regional School Board endorses the resolution of parent/guardian concerns in a respectful and efficient manner at the school and board levels.

The purpose of this policy is to provide a progressive mediation process and framework for addressing unresolved parent/guardian concerns related to their child/children's school program and/or to the enforcement of the school codes of conduct, with a focus on student-centered solutions.

In the enforcement of this policy and supporting procedures, the Strait Regional School Board must adhere to relevant legislation, including but not limited to, the Education Act and Regulations under the Act, the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIPOP) Act, Student Records policies and procedures, Provincial and School Board School Code of Conduct and School Code of Conduct Guidelines, policies and procedures, collective agreements, and other applicable Board and provincial policies.

Definition

Parent/guardian Concern: an unresolved issue pertaining to a specific aspect of their child/children's school program and/or to the enforcement of the school codes of conduct.

2. Parent/guardian concerns must first be addressed at the school level. If the matter is not resolved following consultation with school staff and school administration, the Parent/Guardian Concern Protocol may be enacted where other protocols do not exist.
3. It is important that all parties involved have an opportunity to participate in addressing concerns. These concerns will be resolved in a timely and efficient manner as outlined in the supporting procedures, PRO III-A-4.
4. The filing of a Parent/Guardian Concern does not constitute harassment as per Policy VI-C-5, Harassment or Abuse of Staff by the Extended School Community. These are separate mediation processes.
5. The Model Framework: Protection from Child Abuse, Discrimination, and Sexual Harassment (Nova Scotia Department of Education 2003) outlines the procedures and protocols to be followed when complaints involve discrimination, sexual harassment, or child abuse.
6. For issues pertaining to special education, student services and/or the program planning process, the matter is addressed via the provincial and board policies in special education. Please refer to Special Education Policies III-C-1 to III-C-5.

If consultation at the school level does not resolve the issue, parents may proceed to the Coordinator responsible for Student Services for additional assistance by contacting Regional Office at 625-2191.

7. For issues pertaining to student behaviour, discipline and/or suspensions, the matter is addressed via the Provincial and Board Codes of Conduct and related policies and procedures. Please refer to School Codes of Conduct policies and supporting procedures, IV-C-1 to IV-C-10.

If consultation at the school level does not resolve the issue, parents may proceed to the Coordinator responsible for Student Discipline for additional assistance by contacting Regional Office at 625-2191.

8. For issues pertaining to Race Relations, Human Rights and Cross-Cultural Understanding, the matter is addressed via the pertinent Provincial and Board policies and procedures. Please refer to RCH Policy I-D-3.

If consultation at the school level does not resolve the issue, parents may proceed to the Coordinator responsible for Race Relations, Human Rights and Cross Cultural Understanding for additional assistance by contacting Regional Office at 625-2191.

9. For issues pertaining to the transfer of students within the jurisdiction of the Strait Regional School Board, please refer to the Transfer of Students Policy (client initiated) Policy IV-E-7.

If consultation at the school level does not resolve the issue, parents may proceed to the Director of Programs and Student Services for additional assistance by contacting Regional Office at 625-2191.
10. Schools should make available and provide information regarding the parent/guardian concern protocol to the school community.
11. The School Board is committed to the successful resolution of parent/guardian concerns while recognizing that some concerns may not be resolved to the satisfaction of the parent/guardian.
12. The Strait Regional School Board has established a set of procedures to guide all aspects of this policy. Please refer to PRO III-A-4.
